Mrs. Molloy's Counseling Corner

Dear Students,

I miss all of you so much! It is hard to do the job I love so dearly without getting to support you each day. I know that times can be super stressful right now, so I still want to be here for you...just remotely!

I have created a counseling mailbox allowing you to contact me just like you would on campus. You can request an email, a brief phone call, or 10-15 minute virtual meeting. You can also just stop by my mailbox to say hi. I would love to know how all of you are doing.

1. Just click the link below (email me if you have trouble opening)
1. Agree to the guidelines
2. Complete the form
3. I will email you a day and time to connect
